Tsurumi Plant Holds Disaster Prevention Training

The Tsurumi lube oil blending plant (location: Yokohama City, Kanagawa; manager: Masayuki Miyazaki) of Tonengeneral Sekiyu K.K. (head office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; president: Jun Mutoh) held disaster prevention training on September 27 for employees charged with reporting information in the event of emergencies.

Participants were trained in reporting to the relevant authorities after the occurrence of abnormalities, as well as sharing information with municipal firefighters and joint disaster prevention personnel upon their arrival at the scene. In addition, the Tsurumi plant disaster prevention brigade underwent training in extinguishing small fires, the prevention of oil spills and the recovery of leaked oil.

In addition to the 16 members of the Tsurumi plant disaster prevention brigade that took part in the training, the Yokohama City Tsurumi Fire Department sent three vehicles and 10 staff members, and the Anzen-cho Joint Disaster Prevention Brigade one vehicle and four staff members, to participate in the exercise, the main objective of which was training in the prompt and accurate sharing of information with municipal firefighters and joint disaster prevention personnel.
